Demonstration of Household Electricity.

THIS exhibition will be continued all the week. It is both interesting and instructive—a revelation to many. Every electrical appliance and device that can be put to practical use in the home is shown in its respective capacity, and you will be surprised at the great saving of time, labor, and expense by the use of electricity.

To-day we speak of the following:

Electric Massage has grown in favor until a woman's toilet outfit is not complete without one. May be attached to an electric light, and the use is safe and easy; insures freedom from wrinkles, headache, &c. A soft, clear skin is always the outcome of Electric Massage.

In curing one of nervousness, insomnia, neuralgia, constipation, &c., the Electric Massage offers a wide range of usefulness.

Electric Arrangements for heating curling irons may be attached to an electric light, and in a very few minutes you have a hot curling iron.

The Milk Warmer will recommend itself at a glance. The milk is put in the bottle. This placed in the warmer with a little water. During the night, by simply turning the switch, the milk may be heated in a very few minutes.

The Warning Pad takes the place of the hot-water bag or bottle, and more than meets all the requirements.

Electric Corn Popper—By attaching this to an electric light you can pop corn without any trouble. This device will delight the children.

Special demonstrations of electric cooking by an expert every morning from 10:30 to 12:30. Afternoons, 3 to 5 o'clock.

Dr. Oswald Cruz Again Honored by His Country's Representative. Number Invited to Meet Noted Scientist—Baron Rosen and Baron Schlippenbach Go to New York.

A small group of relatives and intimate friends were present at the marriage of Miss Mary Lloyd Withers and Mr. Henry Carl Kleinschmidt, which was solemnized at the residence of the bride's mother yesterday at noon. Rev. Alfred Harding, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, performed the ceremony, and Mr. Fred C. Kleinschmidt was his brother's best man. Little Mary Elizabeth Payne, niece of the bridegroom, acted as flower girl, and was the bride's only attendant. She wore a frock of white muslin and pink ribbons and carried pink roses. The service was read at an improvised altar, in a bower of palms, which was lighted by yellow tapers in silver candelabra, clusters of yellow chrysanthemums adding to the pretty effect of the decorations. Mrs. Withers escorted her daughter and gave her in marriage.

The wedding gown was a dainty girlish creation of French batiste trimmed with quantities of German Valenciennes lace and hand embroidery, and the bridal bouquet was a shower of Bride roses. Just preceding the ceremony Mrs. Addie Kleinschmidt Payne sang Rubenstein's "Thou Art Like Unto a Flower." A collation was served immediately after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Kleinschmidt leaving for a Northern trip later in the afternoon. Upon their return they will take up their residence with Mrs. Withers at Chevy Chase.

St. Dominic's Church was the scene of a pretty wedding yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Miss Marie Hutton, daughter of Mrs. Ella A. Hutton, and Mr. Edgar A. Hawk being the contracting parties. The church was simply decorated with palms and white chrysanthemums. Miss Barbara Bishop played the wedding marches and other appropriate music. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Edward Fitzgerald, and Dr. Edward J. Kelleher acted as best man.

Miss Theresa Fitzgerald, as honor maid, was the bride's only attendant. The bride wore a tailored suit of brown broadcloth with a hat trimmed with plumes and minor appointments to match. The wedding bouquet was a cluster of white chrysanthemums. The honor maid wore a street costume of dark blue cloth, with hat to match, and carried chrysanthemums. Mr. and Mrs. Hawk left the city for a wedding trip, and upon their return will make their future home at 809 F street southwest, with Mrs. Hutton.

The wedding of Miss Violetta Spencer, daughter of Mrs. Annie L. Spencer, to Mr. Frank Drummond Pollard took place last evening at 7 o'clock at the residence of the bride's mother at the Mississippi. Rev. W. G. Davenport performed the ceremony, which was witnessed only by the immediate families of the bride and bridegroom. A getting-up of palms and ferns, with clusters of white blossoms, decorated the bower where the bridal party stood. Mrs. Spencer gave her daughter in marriage.

The wedding gown was a beautiful pattern of white princess lace, over tulle, with insets of Irish crochet lace, and the bodice was trimmed with a bertha of hand-embroidered French batiste. A full tulle veil was worn, and a shower of lilies-of-the-valley and roses completed the costume. At 8 o'clock a reception was held, after which Mr. and Mrs. Pollard left Washington for a wedding trip. They will make their home at 501 Park road.

The wedding of Miss Mabel Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith, to Lieut. Charles Sanderson, U. S. M. C., was another noon wedding yesterday. The ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. Joseph I. McGuire, pastor of Holy Comforter Church. Only relatives witnessed the service, which was followed by a reception at 12:30. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and her sister, Miss Caroline Smith, was maid of honor.

Capt. W. N. Low, U. S. C., was Lieut. Sanderson's best man. Music was furnished by a portion of the Marine Band. The wedding party was grouped about an improvised altar, formed in a window recess beneath a canopy of smilax, from which was suspended a cluster of white satin wedding bells. The whole was backed with palms and ferns, intermingled with Bridal roses.

In the dining-room and reception hall Killarney roses and white chrysanthemums were used. The bridal gown was of heavy white satin, fashioned on the empire line with a long train, the bodice having as trimming a handsome bertha of duchesse lace. A coronet of orange blossoms held the full tulle veil to the hair, and the wedding bouquet was a shower of Bride roses and white orchids. The maid of honor was attired in a gown of apricot striped voile and velvet made princess, and trimmed with Irish crochet lace. Her bouquet was a cluster of American Beauty roses and a large black hat, trimmed with quantities of plumes, completed the costume.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Sanderson left Washington during the afternoon. Upon their return they will take up their residence at the Highlands. Mrs. Sanderson wore for traveling a tailored suit of rough novelty cloth, in a stripe effect of green and black. Her hat was of black satin, trimmed with velvet of Copenhagen blue.

Mrs. Florence Thomas Fisher and Mr. Edward Peace Rawle, of Philadelphia, were married at noon yesterday at the residence of Gen. and Mrs. Humphrey, in the Portico. The rooms were prettily decorated with palms, smilax, and potted plants. Gen. Humphrey escorted his niece and gave her in marriage. There were no attendants except Mr. James W. Rawle, of Philadelphia. The wedding gown was a becoming costume of pale blue chiffon broadcloth, embroidered in white and silver, and a pale blue picture hat trimmed with long ostrich plumes. The bridal bouquet was a shower of white carnations.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. The guests, consisting mostly of relatives, with only a few intimate friends, were the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Rawle, parents of the bridegroom; the Misses Rawle, of Bryn Mawr; sisters of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Rawle, of Rosemont, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Hurry, of New York; the Misses Hurry, of New York; Mrs. Henry Fisher, of Redlands, Cal.; sister of the bride; J. Randall Williams, Jr., of Haverford, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Laussé, of Villanova, Pa.; Mr. Henry H. Coleman Brown, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Morven Thompson, Miss Williamson, of Washington; Thomas H. Hulings, of Baltimore; his mother, Mrs. Hulings; sister, Mrs. Offutt, of Rockville, Md., and the Misses Humphrey.

Later in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Rawle left Washington for their bridal trip and their future home in Philadelphia. Mrs. Rawle wore a green broadcloth traveling suit and a chic fur hat. Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Humphrey entertained the bridal party and a few friends in her apartment at tea from 3 to 7.

The bride is the daughter of the late Major Evan Thomas, U. S. A., and a granddaughter of the late Gen. Lorenzo Thomas, U. S. A. During her early girlhood Mrs. Fisher resided in Washington, but of late years has made her home in California. Last winter she spent in Washington.

At St. Paul's Roman Catholic Church yesterday at noon, Miss Maud Laurens McCahill became the bride of Mr. John Walter Lyons, of Rutland, Vt. The Rev. James F. Mackin officiated. Miss Mary McCahill, a sister of the bride, was her maid of honor and only attendant.

Mr. Robert Kinsley, of Rutland, Vt., acted as best man. The ushers were Mr. J. Edwards Capps, of Rutland, Vt.; Mr. William H. Dunn and Mr. Henry H. Fletcher, of New York; Mr. A. C. Ritchie and Mr. William M. Roach, of Washington.

The bride entered the church with her uncle, Alfred McCahill, of Elizabeth, N. J. Her gown was a handsome princess of white satin, effectively trimmed with old rose point lace and white chiffon. The front of the yoke, which came down in a bertha effect in the front, was made of the lace from the fan carried by the bride's mother at her wedding. The front panel of the skirt was trimmed with seed pearls, and the bride's only ornament was a pearl necklace. The tulle veil fell to the hem of the long court train, and was arranged with a coronet of orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet was a shower of Bride roses. The maid of honor wore a gown of white chiffon cloth over pink tulle, and white hat trimmed with white plumes. She carried a shower bouquet of Golden Gate roses.

Following the ceremony at the church a wedding breakfast for the bridal party and relatives was served in the brides' home in the Woodley. Here the decorations were also in green, with white chrysanthemums, roses, palms, and ferns. Mrs. Edwin McCahill, mother of the bride, wore a handsome white lace gown with a corsage bouquet of violets, and a black picture hat. Mrs. Alfred McCahill, aunt of the bride, of Elizabeth, N. J., wore a gown of
